

Community Prepares to Commemorate Sept. 11

Rotary Club of Beverly Hills members and other members of the community came together on Sept. 5 to prep the Twin Towers beam for the ceremony marking the 25th anniversary of the Sept. 11 attacks. The group cleaned and treated the large metal beam, which was recovered from the World Trade Center wreckage. This year's commemorative ceremony will take place on Sept. 11 at 11 a.m. at 435 N. Rexford Drive next to the Fire Department. A visual participation link is available at beverlyhills.org/live.

The Commission discussed the Concerts on Canon series.

BY DANTE DALLAGO

The Beverly Hills Arts and Culture Commission met Sept. 8 to review its 2026-27 work plan, discuss the 2026 Concerts on Canon season, continue planning for the 2028 Olympics and receive updates on the city's public art collection.

The meeting also marked the introduction of Jamie Bumia, the city's new director of community services.

"I am very excited and honored to be here and to be able to work closely with you as our events go on and as everything comes up," Bumia said. "This team is fantastic, so I am very thrilled to be able to support them in all we are going to do this year."
